8. Discussion about the Mayor Mary Arrendell and Colony Ridge, Liberty County correspondence.

Diana Chunn- Carl was not aware of all of the correspondence between Mary and Trey. He was also not aware that she was calling Trey, then him, and then Trey again. We need some form of policy in place to prevent this because it is a conflict of interest with our lawsuit. We do not need to hide things we need to be open, and 2 members need to be present in situations like this. If this is going to continue, I want a policy put in to place.

Carly Sager- the whole thing is sketchy and dishonest. I thought we could move on and then Mary sends her letter to the editor and it is just slanderous. That is the main reason I called the meeting to clear up this lie and if we can work together awesome but the lying needs to stop. Carl our attorney also advised Mary that it looks bad because there is no way to regulate the phone calls. Can we just pass a resolution asking the mayor to be honest? Nobody sitting at this table hates the developer or anyone in his subdivision. Disagreeing with someone does not equal hate.

Wayne Dolcefino- It is a huge conflict of interest there needs to be a record of every single conversation that they have.

Mary Lou Smith- she needs to be more transparent why hide things.

9. Discussion on the attorney Invoices for Randle Law firm and related matters.
10. Motion to Adjourn made by CM Sager, 2nd by CM Smith, motion passed unopposed.
